- (b) Financial Ordinary Members have voting rights at General Meetings and Annual General Meetings.

5. MEMBERSHIP

5.1 Application for Party membership

An application for Party membership must be:

- (a) in writing
 - (i) be signed by the applicant
 - (ii) state that the applicant agrees with the objectives of the Party
- (b) an internet application

- (i) be electronically signed by the applicant
- (ii) state that the applicant agrees with the objectives of the Party
- (c) otherwise be in the form decided by the Executive Committee.

5.2 Admission and rejection of Members

- (a) The Executive Committee must consider an application for membership at the next meeting of the Party, when it receives:
 - (i) the application and
 - (ii) the appropriate membership fee for the application, if applicable.
- (b) Admission to ordinary membership (financial and non-financial) shall be by election of the Executive Committee, or upon appeal, by the members. At the Party meeting next following the receipt of the membership application, and payment or tender to the Secretary of the annual subscription for the current financial year as provided by this Constitution (if applicable), the Executive Committee shall consider the application of each applicant and shall elect or reject him or her as a member.
- (c) Any applicant who received a majority of the votes of the Executive Committee members present at the meeting, at which his or her application is being considered, shall be declared elected by the Chairman as an ordinary member.
- (d) The Executive Committee has absolute discretion to refuse membership applications of applicants who are deemed unsuitable for the Party and furthermore has no obligation under the Party's Rules to disclose the reasons for that decision.
- (e) The Secretary of the Party must, as soon as is practicable after the Executive Committee decides to accept or reject an application, give the applicant a written notice of the decision.

5.3 Appeal against rejection or termination of membership

- (a) A person whose application for membership has been rejected, or whose membership has been terminated, may give the Secretary written notice of their intention to appeal against the decision.
- (b) A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the Secretary within one (1) month after the person receives written notice against the decision.
- (c) If the Secretary receives a notice of intention to appeal, the Secretary must, within three (3) months after the date of receipt, call for a General Meeting to decide the appeal.
- (d) At the meeting, the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity verbally or in writing, or partly by either of these means, to show why the application should not be rejected or the membership should not be terminated.

- (e) Also, the Executive Committee and the committee members who rejected the application or terminated the membership, must be given an opportunity to show why the application should be rejected or the membership must be terminated.
- (f) An appeal must be decided by a vote of the financial members present at the meeting.
- (g) If a person whose application has been rejected does not appeal against the decision within one (1) month after receiving written notice of the decision, or the person appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the Secretary must, as soon as practicable, refund the application fee, or applicable part thereof, paid by the person.

5.4 Membership requirements

Each applicant must:

- (a) be registered on the Queensland Electoral Roll
